The Missing spin-off!

On the hunt: Tom plays a distraught uncle

Here's an intriguing first snap of Tchéky Karyo as he reprises his role of The Missing's dogged former detective Julien Baptiste in BBC1's spin-off thriller Baptiste.

'It's such a pleasure to be writing the character of Baptiste again, and working with the brilliant Tchéky, who brings such depth and individuality to Julien,' say The Missing's writers Jack and Harry Williams, who are penning and producing the new series.

Here's all we know so far...

CAREN CLARK

RETURNING FAVOURITES

As the series opens, Baptiste and his wife, Celia (Anastasia Hille), are in Amsterdam on a break. Their trip's soon thrown into disarray, however, when Baptiste is asked to help investigate a case that leads him into the city's murky underworld. But as Baptiste was last seen undergoing an operation for a brain tumour, will he be fighting fit?

The Missing: Tchéky with Keeley Hawes

NEW FACES

Rev. star Tom Hollander plays devastated Edward, who's searching for his missing niece, a prostitute, in Amsterdam.

Meanwhile, Jessica Raine (Informer) plays Europol officer Genevieve, who's also looking into the case. Belgian actor Barbara Sarafian plays Baptiste's former girlfriend Martha (pictured above), the Chief of Police in Amsterdam, who calls on his expertise in missing-persons cases.

'A SHOCKING STORY'

Like The Missing, the drama has a strong pan-European feel, as it was filmed over Summer and Autumn in Amsterdam, Belgium and Kent. Expect plenty of twists and turns when the six-part series airs on BBC1 next year.

'Baptiste will allow us to discover more about Julien than ever before as he's parachuted into the centre of a shocking and wide-ranging crime story,' says Piers Wenger, Controller of BBC Drama. We can't wait!

The most wonderful time of the year?

Stars Tina O'Brien and Lucy Fallon reveal their plans for the holidays on and off-screen...

SOAP

Coronation Street

MON, WED, FRI / ITV / TIMES VARY

The Platts don't often have a merry Christmas, and when the four generations get together for a festive lunch in the Bistro this year, it looks like trouble is on the menu...

Lothario Lewis is acting shiftily – and Nick can't help wondering if his beloved gran is being taken for a ride once again. Could poor Aud be heading for heartache?

After our exclusive cover shoot, Corrie stars Tina O'Brien and Lucy Fallon – who play Sarah and Bethany – tells us more...

What is Christmas like for Sarah and Bethany this year?

Lucy: This one's quite good for Bethany; she's working at the Bistro on Christmas Day, but all the Platts are there and they're exchanging gifts.

Tina: Christmas Day is a bit of a sore point for Sarah, because Gary decides to spend Christmas with Nicola and their son, Zack. She's pretty miffed, especially as she finds out that he's spent more money on presents for Zack and his other son, Jake, than he's spent on Sarah's son, Harry.

What can we expect when the Platts have their Christmas dinner?

Lucy: There's a lot of bickering, but Audrey has come into some money and she has an envelope for everybody, and says they won't get it if they don't behave. She's promised them big things. They all think they're getting twenty grand.

Tina: She does something really lovely, but it's not what the Platts have been expecting...

“This one's quite good for Bethany”

LUCY FALLON

Suspicious behaviour: Is Lewis planning to leave Audrey high and dry?

Nick notices Lewis being shiftily, and starts to investigate. How would Sarah and Bethany feel if it turned out that this leopard hadn't changed his spots?

Lucy: Bethany's trust in men is quite low after what she's been through.

I think she would be quite angry and she could potentially want revenge.

Tina: Sarah's had it in the ear about Lewis from Gail, but her gran is happy, so she's given him the benefit of the doubt. She'd be very upset if she discovered he hadn't changed, but the Platts are very loyal and always pull together in a crisis.

Is there a special atmosphere on set when you film Corrie's Christmas episodes?

Lucy: We don't normally get many scenes where there's all of us together, so the big difference is that we get a proper family scene where everyone is there, from the kids to the dog, and that's really nice.

Tina: You're all dressed up in your Christmas clothes, and it gets you excited about Christmas coming. Sarah's usually had one too many to drink, so that's always fun!

What Christmas presents would you buy for your characters?

Lucy: I think Bethany needs some new clothes; her fashion sense has gone a bit dodgy in the past few months, and she's not on trend any more. Or she could do with a nail course. She took Kylie's place at the salon and she needs a qualification.

Tina: I think Sarah needs a house! She's sleeping on an inflatable mattress at the minute, so she could do with her own space.

How will you be spending Christmas Day away from Weatherfield?

Lucy: We're going out this year – there's 22 of us. It's a little bistro-type restaurant, but it's small, so hopefully there'll only be us in there. It's not the same as staying in, but hopefully we'll make it just as good.

Tina: My daughter Scarlett's dad [Ryan Thomas, who played Jason Grimshaw] is doing panto, so I'm spending Christmas morning with her and then she's going to him. Me and my partner, Adam, our son Beau and my parents are then going to a pub near us for Christmas dinner.

What's on your Christmas list?

Lucy: I really want a doormat! I've seen one with a sausage dog on it. It's £30, which I think is quite expensive, but that's what I've asked for.

Tina: I'd like a really nice going-out dress.

I've got a couple of dos coming up and I've got nothing to wear.

Are you going to make any New Year's resolutions?

Lucy: I never make them because I never stick to them. Maybe my resolution should be to make some resolutions!

Tina: I want to lose a bit of weight. The problem is, I've got no willpower. If I'm offered wine, pudding, cheese and biscuits, I'll just say yes to it all. I need to say no!

As 2019 will soon be upon us, what would you like to happen to your characters next year?

Lucy: Something awful! It's a bad thing to say, I know, but something dark and terrible to get my teeth into.

Tina: I'd like Sarah to do something naughty. If I were one of the writers, I'd take her out of her comfort zone. She's happy and settled, and I think she needs to be thrown a curveball...

Ahead of Saturday's Strictly final, judge Craig Revel Horwood presents his own awards to the class of 2018...

LAST ONE ENTERTAINMENT Strictly Come Dancing

SATURDAY / BBC1 / 6.30PM

After weeks of fab foxtrots, sparkling sambas and perfect paso dobles, this weekend we'll see who lifts the coveted Glitterball trophy, as Strictly reaches its finale.

For the show's razor-tongued judge, Craig Revel Horwood, 2018 has been a standout year...

'This series has been fantastic,' enthuses Craig, as he chats to TV Times. 'I thought the line-up was so well-crafted. Joe Sugg, for instance, has eight million young subscribers on YouTube, which brought a whole new audience to Strictly; I think that's something to celebrate. All the celebs have really delivered.'

On Saturday night, Craig and fellow judges Shirley Ballas, Darcey Bussell and Bruno Tonioli will once again give their verdict on all the performances – but it's the viewers alone who will decide which couple is crowned Strictly champions...

'No one knows what will happen, as the audience can choose whoever they like,' says Craig, 53. 'I just hope the final gives us some great dancing!'

To get us in the mood, Craig hands out his own awards in honour of the class of 2018...

VICTORIA WILSON

STRICTLY COME DANCING IS PREVIEWED ON PAGES 36-37

MOST IMPROVED

Joe Sugg
& Dianne Buswell

'I'd say the most improved dancer is Joe. To begin with, he had a sticky-out bottom and he wasn't particularly good, so I didn't hold out much hope for him after the opening show. I remember thinking, "Well, that's gonna be a complete dance dis-ah-ster!" But every week he's really knuckled down and focused on technically delivering the dances and showcasing his fun personality.'

SURPRISE PACKAGE

Graeme Swann
& Oti Mabuse

'Graeme was the surprise because he really threw himself into Strictly. I thought he'd be a "dad dancer", but he showed some natural ability and rhythm. He always managed to keep time and jam-pack his routines with lots of tricky steps.'

ENTERTAINMENT VALUE

Dr Ranj Singh &
Janette Manrara

'Dr Ranj really brought the entertainment factor to the show this year. He was so smiley, just got on with it, and I thought him and Janette looked great together; they were a proper little power couple. It's a shame Ranj left the competition so early – I think we would have seen a lot more from him. And let's not forget that, when he wasn't dancing, he was busy saving lives!'

CRAIG'S SPECIAL AWARD

Katie Piper
& Gorka Marquez

'For me, Katie definitely wins the courage and bravery award this year, for just getting out there on the dance floor, doing it and absolutely loving it! I really think Strictly changed her life in that way and has given her a brand-new sense of self-confidence that she really needed.'

SHOCK EXIT

Danny John-Jules
& Amy Dowden

'Whether it had anything to do with negative press, I have no idea, but Danny was one of the competition's better dancers – technically he could do double turns and really difficult moves better than others. Yes, he made a mistake in the dance-off, but you have to weigh up the odds and, sadly, I was outnumbered by the other judges.'

a ball!

JAW-DROPPING MOMENT

Faye Tozer & Giovanni Pernice

'Faye and Giovanni's Grease-inspired quickstep [to You're the One That I Want] was just brilliant. No one ever does that dance in a skin-tight catsuit like Faye did – normally the woman's legs are hidden away under a frock – so it was interesting to see how well it was done and how clean it was. And it was so quick! It was fast and furious but really accurate. A-may-zing, darlings.'

BEST PARTNERSHIP

Ashley Roberts & Pasha Kovalev

'Ashley and Pasha just work really well together. I've loved the introduction of the Couple's Choice element this series, allowing the couples to perform street, jazz or contemporary dances that are new to Strictly. And I love, love, loved Ashley's contemporary routine; it was amazing. She's an extraordinary dancer and she put absolutely everything into that dance.'

UNEXPECTED CONTENDER

Stacey Dooley & Kevin Clifton

'That has to be Stacey. I don't think anyone expected her to do anything much at all really, but she's just been absolutely brilliant! She's proved she's a real fighter; Kevin's choreography is extraordinary but it seems Stacey can pick up any sort of dance really quickly and just fly with it. I think she could go all the way.'

A very Merry Christmas!

Mary Berry on teaching more celebs how to cook fabulous festive fare and her own plans for the holidays...

NEW COOKERY

Mary Berry's Christmas Party

MON / BBC1 / 8.30PM (TIMES VARY)

Mary Berry loves Christmas! For the respected cook and former judge of The Great British Bake Off, the festive season is about spending time with family and friends but it's also about doing what she has done best all her life – helping others to shine in the kitchen.

After the success of her seasonal special Mary Berry's Christmas Party last December, this week sees the queen of baking open her doors once again to four more eager, and somewhat nervous, celebrities all hoping to fine-tune their festive cookery skills.

And the pressure is on as Poldark's leading lady Eleanor Tomlinson, BBC newsreader Huw Edwards, athlete Dina Asher-Smith, and comedian Joe Lycett are invited to help Mary prepare for her own Christmas party.

Mary, 83, tells us more...

What are your secret ingredients for the perfect Christmas party?

The perfect Christmas is all about planning. It's thinking about how everything will run on the day, putting some things in a freezer, doing some of the heavy shopping in advance like getting the tinned goods in and maybe ordering things ahead. I like to make a plan and think about what am I going to give everybody over the Christmas period; which recipes of mine do they like most? Will I cook that or try something new? It's all about getting organised.

What were the cooking strengths of each of your celebrity guests?

I enjoyed cooking with all of them. Huw, Dina, Eleanor and Joe were great sports to take part because they had no idea what we were going to be up to.

But they were wonderful and keen to do well – it was lovely.

Do you do all the Christmas cooking in your house?

I am hosting this year. I went to my daughter Annabel's last year. She cooks most of the food but I always cook the turkey. It's an hour away, so I cook it in my own oven but then it's done a couple of hours early, so I wrap it in foil, cover it in a sleeping bag then stick it in the boot of the car. This year, however, I'm going to cook here and

Winter warmer: A glass of mulled wine

“Christmas to me is about family and I love getting everyone together” everyone will bring something. My daughter-in-law's mother brings the Christmas pudding, others bring canapés, and we all do our bit.

Who does the washing-up?

We all do! I actually quite like being at the sink myself and everyone else takes a tea towel. My family knows where everything goes and everything goes back in the right drawers and cupboards – if not I shout and tell them where it goes!

Have you ever had any Christmas party disasters?

I was cooking a crown of a turkey once and I left it on the side to serve it and the dog took it! I caught it and put it back on the carving board and didn't tell a soul, though it was only my own family.

I did tell them afterwards and they love the dog, so it was all fine. I wouldn't do that to anyone that wasn't my family, though.

What does Christmas mean to you and what are your favourite memories?

Christmas to me is about family and I love getting everyone together. As for favourite memories, I think it's lovely when the young do a little play or sing a song. We always do a puzzle, too, where anybody at a loose end will come and join in. The older generation sitting with someone younger, having a nice conversation over the puzzle.

What is your favourite festive tradition?

Singing carols. I don't mind where I sing them but until I have been to a carol service I don't feel Christmassy.

If TV Times came around to yours for a big Christmas party, what would you prepare and what would the party be like?

If TV Times came over as guests, I'd certainly push the boat out. If it was really cold and wintery I'd start off by welcoming everyone with a nice hot spiced mulled drink. If the whole team at TV Times was coming, I wouldn't have enough tables and chairs, so I would do bowl food; something that's easy to serve. I would perhaps do a nasi goreng, which is a rice dish that's easy to eat with just a fork. There would be quiet Christmas music playing in the background. After the mulled wine, I might offer Prosecco – everyone seems to like it!

Who would be your dream Christmas party guests?

Truthfully, I can say my dream party guests would be my complete family because we don't get together that often. Maybe when it's someone's 50th birthday, but to have everyone under the same roof is one of the things I like most.

Andrew Field on what made Davina and Nicky's party so special for him...

NEW FACTUAL

Long Lost Family Christmas Reunion

MONDAY / ITV / 9PM

In 2015, HGV driver Andrew Field from Peterborough was stunned when his birth mother, Susan Ellerton, tracked him down with the help of Long Lost Family.

Susan had given Andrew up for adoption when he was a baby in 1962, but there was another shock, too. Susan was still with Andrew's birth father, Chris, and they had married, emigrated to Canada and had five more children.

Now the family are together again for ITV's Long Lost Family Christmas Reunion, which sees 120 of the show's previously reunited loved ones join Nicky Campbell and Davina McCall for a celebration in London.

And this amazing event brings another surprise for Andrew, now 56, as he meets his youngest brother, James, for the very first time.

Here, Andrew tells TV Times all about it...

What was it like to be a part of the Christmas reunion?

It was emotional. Being able to meet other people in a similar situation was fantastic. Everyone's story is different, so it was interesting to see other people's perspectives.

I was the only one wearing a Christmas hat, though!

“Some people go to the grave without answers, so I'm incredibly fortunate”

Did you enjoy catching up with Nicky and Davina?

Nicky looked after me when I was on the show originally, so it was nice talking to him again. Davina said she felt as if she knew me, even though we'd never met, because she had been closely connected to the story. They are lovely people.

You got an extra Christmas present when you met your youngest brother, James. Were you shocked?

Yes, I didn't see it coming, but it was very special. James was the last piece of the puzzle and it was the first time for all of us to be together, so that must have been a moment for Susan and Chris, too. My partner, Karen, and I were saving up to go over to Canada next year to meet James because we've spoken on the phone but whenever we've been over, we've always missed him. So you could have knocked me over with a feather when Davina led me over to a Christmas tree and James came in. We were shell-shocked.

Did you find you had things in common?

Everyone's said that we are the siblings who are most alike – James is like a younger, not so good-looking version of me! He's also a HGV driver like me, and all the family are drummers and I used to play in a marching band and my son plays in bands. Although I wasn't brought up under their wing, we have the same interests; it's strange.

The reunion also gave you the chance to spend more time with Susan and Chris. Was that lovely?

Yes, we hear regularly from them through emails and phone calls but we didn't think that we'd meet up this year, so it was fantastic. It's such a special thing to have met them and my siblings. I'd always been told that my mum was 15 when she had me and too young to look after me – on birthdays and Christmas, I used to wonder what she was up to. I was geared up to meet just her but it's incredible to have met both Susan and Chris. It's rare that they are still together, and they've been through a lot. There's never been any suggestion of a grudge from me because I was brought up by the most loving parents.

Are you grateful that Long Lost Family reunited you all?

Yes, because it has changed things for me, and has made me more complete. Some people go to the grave without answers, so I'm incredibly fortunate. Stuff like this doesn't happen often in your life.

'This is still a tale for our time'

Tamara Lawrance and Hayley Atwell
on their powerful story of slavery in 19th-century Jamaica...

NEW DRAMA

The Long Song

TUE-THU / BBC1 / 9PM

Hayley Atwell has played some superb leading ladies during her career, from heroine Margaret Schlegel in BBC1's 2017 adaptation of Howards End to resourceful Peggy Carter in Marvel shows such as Agent Carter and Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D.

But now she's taking on a very different role as a villainous mistress who's set to leave viewers repulsed in BBC1's The Long Song, a three-part adaptation of Andrea Levy's novel of the same name.

Set during the final days of slavery in 19th-century Jamaica, the story follows strong-willed young slave July – played by No Offence star Tamara Lawrance – who works on a sugar plantation and her odious boss Caroline Mortimer (Hayley).

'Caroline is a monster and that's why I wanted to play her,' says Hayley. 'I've never had the opportunity to play a character like this. She's absolutely heinous, so it was a challenge to find some psychological truth and pathos in her. It's a challenge I thought I'd fail, but I wanted to try anyway!'

Thankfully, the tale, which runs over three nights this week, is not told through Caroline's eyes, but from the perspective of July, who tolerates her mistress' tantrums in return for status on her estate.

Yet when a slave rebellion breaks, a heart-wrenching incident turns July's world upside down and leaves her questioning her loyalties.

TV Times met Hayley, 36, and Tamara, 24, to find out more...

How would you describe both of your characters?

Hayley: My character, Caroline, is the sister of a plantation owner who has come to live in Jamaica from London – she expected it to be this idyllic paradise, but she has had a bit of an awakening. She's cruel and selfish, but she's also ridiculous and in many ways she's almost a panto villain. It was an incredibly liberating role to play, though, because there was no pressure to be pretty or sexy. I got to play a proper character.

Tamara: July is fascinating – she's really subversive. In many ways I had to debunk the myth of what we think of as a slave, because while she's trying to survive in a hard world, she's not encumbered or hard done by; there's a lightness to her. She's not afraid of Caroline, but sometimes she has to pretend to be. July is humbled by trauma in the opening episode, but when a new overseer called Robert Goodwin [played by War &

Child's play: Tamara and Jack as July and Robert

Peace's Jack Lowden] arrives on the plantation, her and Caroline's lives are changed for ever...

Sir Lenny Henry plays Godfrey, July's fellow slave. What was it like working with him?

Hayley: It was brilliant! He's a great man and a fine actor. It was quite weird actually because in one scene I had to slap him and just before we did it, I told him that he's one of my heroes and I watched his shows as a kid. He laughed and said, 'Don't tell me that now!'

Does the drama's subject matter still feel relevant now?

Hayley: It's about a culture and a place that's on the cusp of change and what that feels like for people on both sides of the divide. Things are finally catching up with people who've enslaved a race for so long. But as we've seen with the Windrush scandal, the debate is still just as important today. It's still a tale for our time.

How much did you know about the Christmas Rebellion of 1831 [an 11-day uprising by 60,000 of the 300,000 slaves in Jamaica]?

Tamara: My mum told me all about [Baptist preacher] Samuel Sharpe, who led the uprising, when I was a kid, but I didn't realise what it meant to be a national hero until I started doing this job. It's helped me to feel proud of that history. When I got the part, my mum saw the trailer and left me a voicemail and I could tell that she was a bit shaky and emotional. She's been asking me when it's coming out ever since and I know she'll either love it or tell me my Jamaican accent is terrible!

What was it like filming in the Dominican Republic, which stood in for Jamaica?

Tamara: It was incredibly hot, but also very beautiful, with amazing scenery and gorgeous sunsets. It's mad to think the cane fields that were there hundreds of years ago are still there today. I found that quite haunting in a weird way.

Hayley: There were lots of locals who helped us out with the shoot and they were all amazing, but one day we found this enormous blue crab with one large claw in the cane and they told us it was a 'cane crab'. We were all a bit scared until we found out they had been winding us up!

GODFREY

An intelligent slave who works for Caroline and hates the way she treats him. As the rebellion arrives, the chance to take revenge on her emerges.

ROBERT GOODWIN

Move over, Santa!

Alexander Armstrong on his show celebrating Christmas traditions...

NEW ENTERTAINMENT

Best Christmas Ever with Alexander Armstrong

SUNDAY / ITV / 9PM

Alexander Armstrong could rival Santa for seasonal cheer, so he's the perfect host for ITV's Best Christmas Ever, which sees a wealth of well-known faces championing their favourite aspects of the festive season. Here, Xander, 48, tells TV Times more...

How would you sum up the show?

Its main function is to wallow in all the things we love about Christmas. The things we fall back on generally are music, good company and booze, but also films, games and all the many little flavours of Christmas that we genuinely love.

Why do we all have these quirky Christmas traditions?

It's the one time of year when we go out and seek all the things we've loved about it in the past. If something happens twice, then it's a tradition forever more. It's a brilliant thing we do every year.

What kinds of things will the celebrities be championing?

I'm hoping I won't know until they start championing them. I want to get surprises in there. Sometimes families have their own slightly mad traditions. Ours is that we always stand on the stairs and sing O Come, All Ye Faithful at teatime on Christmas Eve. Each year it gets a little bit more elaborate.

One year, someone decided to light lots of candles and turn the lights off and by the following year that was the tradition!

Will you be singing on the show?

Oh God, will I! We have a fabulous house band. I think it's fair to say everyone will be singing.

How much do you love Christmas?

I look forward to it from 2 January! I'm sort of elf-like in my adoration of the Yule. Everything about Christmas is to be cherished.

“So much of the spirit of Christmas involves TV”

What's your top Christmas food?

I absolutely love Brussels sprouts and I have a sprout recipe I would challenge anyone not to like!

Are you the chef on the big day?

My wife and I tend to divide and conquer. I don't know why it's such hard work. We can make a decent lunch any day of the week without it having to be such a drama!

What are your other jobs?

I'm in charge of booze all through the Christmas period. Also filling log baskets and any kind of manual labour. Oh, and I'm in charge of smoked salmon!

Is it fun to be on TV at Christmas?

It's so exciting, partly because people of my generation would sit down with the TV magazine and draw circles round everything we'd like to watch. So much of the spirit of Christmas involves sitting together as a family around the TV.

Will you be making any New Year's resolutions?

I recently worked with my lovely friend Ben Miller, hosting Prince Charles' 70th birthday event [ITV's We Are Most Amused and Amazed] and I'd love to do more stuff with him. Also, I'm going to try to give up sugar. We keep chocolates in the fridge so they last longer but they're even more delicious. I have to stop that or I'm going to be enormous...

Olly Murs on taking over an Essex pub for a star-studded night of music and entertainment...

Happy Hour with Olly Murs

SATURDAY / ITV / 9PM

Since he was runner-up on The X Factor in 2009, Olly Murs has not looked back.

This week, to mark almost 10 years at the top, the much-loved pop star and The Voice UK coach takes over a pub in his Essex hometown for a jam-packed night of fun and games – and, of course, plenty of his hit songs – in front of a specially invited audience of friends, family, fans and famous faces for a one-off ITV special.

Before the party gets going, TVTimes caught up with Olly, 34, to find out what he has planned...

How would you describe your Happy Hour? And how does it compare to the ITV special you did in 2014?

We take over The King’s Oak pub in Essex and have loads of fun. It’s like Saturday Night Takeaway meets TFI Friday – carnage, but in a good way! I’m hosting the show and [The Chase host] Bradley Walsh is the landlord of the pub... and my showbiz dad! This show sums up my personality more than the previous special. I wanted to celebrate almost 10 years in the industry by having fun and I’ve got a few famous friends joining in.

Do you play any pub games?

Yes! Sir Tom Jones, my fellow coach on The Voice UK, pops in and we play darts. I didn’t know this but, apparently, Tom loves darts, so it’s me against him and the loser has to eat different ‘pub grub’ that’s traditionally served up in pubs across the country. Some of it’s horrendous, like stuff you’d see on I’m a Celebrity... Get Me out of Here!

Who else can we expect to see?

Emma Willis hosts our Karaoke Wheel of Fun. On The Voice UK, I’m always trying to get Tom to sing and I thought, if I could entice him to the pub to play darts, I could convince him to sing a song with me! I also do a special performance with Jennifer Hudson. As for who else is singing, you’ll have to wait and see...

You’ll be singing a few songs of your own, though, won’t you?

Yes! I’ll be performing my latest single, Moves, from my new album [Olly’s sixth album, You Know I Know], plus many of my hits. When I sing those old songs, it’s weird to think how quickly time has flown. To get to go back to Essex and celebrate my time in the industry with all my friends and family on this show is pretty cool.

What’s your favourite ‘happy hour’ drink? And what makes a great night out?

Well, I used to love a pint of beer but I’m intolerant to yeast now. So I’ll probably have a nice strawberry-and-lime cider or a gin and tonic. I just enjoy time spent with friends. It’s not where you are, it’s who you’re with that counts.

It’ll be 10 years next year since you were on The X Factor. Are you pleased with your career so far?

When you get given an amazing opportunity like this, you don’t want to let it go. I knew I needed to enjoy every moment. I spent too many years working in offices and selling kitchens and giving people advice on energy bills to waste time not doing anything. I love singing, performing and doing TV work, so if I can keep doing that, amazing.

What are your Christmas plans?

Every two years, we have all the family together on Christmas Day and usually all wear fancy dress, something Christmassy. This year we’re having an 1980s-themed Christmas. I’m not telling you who I’m going as – but I’ve ordered my outfit and it looks amazing!

And then you’ll be gearing up for a busy 2019, right?

Yeah, I’ll be doing The Voice UK between January and April. Then there’s my UK tour and more new singles. So it’s gonna be busy, but I can’t wait!

I planned Queen Victoria's wedding

Historian Lucy Worsley on the challenge of recreating Queen Victoria and Prince Albert's big day...

NEW DOCUMENTARY Victoria & Albert: The Royal Wedding

FRIDAY / BBC2 / 8.30PM

This year, we have already celebrated two royal weddings, with Prince Harry tying the knot with Meghan Markle in May, followed by Princess Eugenie and Jack Brooksbank in October.

This week, there's a third as historian Lucy Worsley oversees a reenactment of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert's nuptials. And, as this one-off BBC2 documentary reveals, their 1840 ceremony is where many modern wedding traditions began.

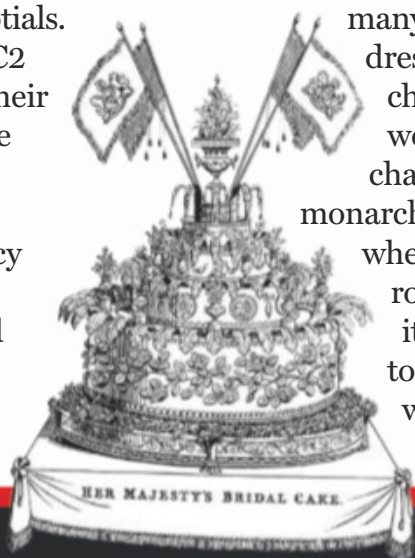

Over 12 months, Lucy and a team of experts painstakingly recreated everything from their big day, from Victoria's white silk dress – an unusual choice at a time when colours were popular for wedding gowns – and the 300lb two-tiered cake to the elaborate wedding breakfast and huge guest list.

Here, in an exclusive interview with TV Times, Lucy, who turns 45 on 18 December, tells us more about this epic challenge...

Why did you want to recreate Queen Victoria's wedding?

We wanted to recreate a special day in royal history and next year is Victoria's bicentenary. It makes you answer all sorts of questions that never normally come up, like how exactly the wedding cake was made. It's a little snapshot of so many things – the dress, the individual characters who were involved, the changing nature of the monarchy – and, in a year when we've had two royal weddings, it's very interesting to see where the royal wedding first began back in 1840.

Vow and then: Contemporary illustrations of the marriage and (below) the impressive cake

It sounds like a huge project...

It was. The biggest challenge was trying to find people who could provide the right stuff. There was a special cake tin that had to be made; we had to find all the game on the menu – some of which it is illegal to eat now. And then there were the costumes...

How hard was it to have everything as it was in 1840?

It wasn't possible to do absolutely everything. We've lost the skills and we didn't have the ready access to cheap labour that people had in the 19th century. On their cake, Queen Victoria and Prince Albert had this amazing sugar sculpture but it would have been impossible to make that in the modern age. We had to use a 3D printer.

Where did you get your information from?

Victoria's diary was a key source, as were contemporary newspaper accounts and the records of one of the bridesmaids. There were Prince Albert's letters to his

Gordon Buchanan on helping six orphaned cubs to return to the wild

NEW NATURE

Grizzly Bear Cubs and Me

TUE, WED / BBC2 / 9PM

What were your first impressions of the cubs you helped rescue?

I thought, 'They're unbelievably cute but they make a lot of noise!' They sounded like velociraptors from Jurassic Park! I also couldn't see how these tiny cubs could ever be released back into the wild – they were so defenceless.

You had to bottle-feed them and clean their fur – how was that?

Bottle-feeding isn't something that's instinctive to them, so it was a wrestling match and you'd end up covered in milk! I love getting close to wild animals to observe them but there's something different about physically nourishing them – it was really special. But I couldn't become too attached so that these cubs had a shot at living free in the forest.

What else did you do to prepare them for the wild?

It was a process of giving them the opportunity to do the things their mothers would encourage, like climbing, swimming and exploring the forest to find food. A lot of it is instinctive for them, though.

What was it like when you finally released them into the wild?

I expected it to be emotional, but actually I was just delighted to see them have a chance to be wild bears and I felt we were doing something really good for the natural world.

GRIZZLY BEAR CUBS AND ME IS PREVIEWED ON PAGES 60-61

Get ready for some serious 'ahh' moments this week as Gordon Buchanan helps rescue six orphaned grizzly bear babies for his new BBC2 series.

The two-parter sees the wildlife cameraman spend eight months in the snowy Russian wilderness with the Pazhetnov family, who for 25 years have been rescuing bear cubs orphaned or abandoned because of hunting or logging.

Gordon became a 'surrogate mum' to a group of six five-week-old male cubs – Slava, Pasha, Tolya, Tyoma, Zhenya and Zhora – feeding them and giving them the skills they needed to return to the wild.

TV Times caught up Gordon, 46, to find out more...

How did this inspirational project come about?

I'd always wanted to film grizzly bears and then I discovered this phenomenal Russian family, the Pazhetnovs, who have devoted their lives to rehabilitating grizzly bears back into the wild and have rescued over 100.

Brought to life: The famous wedding is restaged grandmother and Victoria's own notes to him on the day. I've also read Victoria's mother's diary.

You look at the story behind the wedding, don't you?

Yes. Theirs was a beautiful love story but there's more to it. Victoria didn't want to get married and held out for three years. She only agreed because she was getting a lot of bad press.

The Prime Minister, Lord Melbourne, saw this could be the thing that revived the monarchy. He saw chances to involve the London crowd, such as the carriage ride, and the event was very well publicised.

Which elements have stood the test of time?

Well, the white dress. Victoria needed to make a signal of submission. She needed to appear as a woman rather than a Queen, which is why she wasn't in royal robes. There's also the idea you travel through the streets in a special vehicle with everybody cheering. Plus the family feast and the big wedding cake.

How did you feel on the day of the reenactment?

I was very excited. Part of me was thinking, 'This feels so marvellous', and part of me was thinking, 'The royal machine wants me to feel marvellous.'

So I was inside it but also observing it. But the dressing-up was wonderful. It was like looking into history.

Murder at sea!

Sian Gibson and Johnny Vegas are back with another star-studded Agatha Christie spoof – but this time they're on a cruise ship...

NEW COMEDY

Death on the Tyne

SAT / CHRISTMAS GOLD / 9PM

A murderer in a cuddly dolphin costume with a bottle of Jane McDonald perfume and a chocolate bar for weapons might not be the stuff of Agatha Christie but we'd expect nothing less from a Christmas Gold whodunit!

Death on the Tyne is the feature-length sequel to last year's Murder on the Blackpool Express, which saw chippy coach driver Terry (Benidorm's Johnny Vegas) and tour guide Gemma (Car Share's Sian Gibson) take us on a deadly trip.

This time, the duo reunite with cheery pensioner Mildred (Benidorm's Sheila Reid) to take her and some pals on a cruise from Newcastle to Holland.

But on board the Empress of the Tyne, they're at the mercy of a serial killer who dons the costume of the ship's mascot, Dippy the Dolphin, and embarks on a murderous spree.

TV Times met up with Johnny, 48, and Sian, 42, in London...

How would you describe Death on the Tyne?

Johnny: It is like an Agatha Christie where they're all trapped on this boat and tragedy strikes, but how is it happening again? How do these people attract crazy scenarios?

Sian: This one feels claustrophobic because they're stuck on the ship.

Johnny: And there's more violence – they've ramped it up.

How has Terry and Gemma's romance developed?

Sian: They are now properly together. In the first one, when he became a hero and solved the case, she got a twinkle in her eye for him, so now someone being murdered again has brought all the excitement back. She fancies him when he's in action mode and solving crimes. If we do a third and there are no murders to solve, they're screwed!

Johnny: It could be Gemma doing the murders just to keep the relationship fresh! Terry wants to propose now but people keep getting murdered. There is some tenderness about this couple falling in love within this outlandish story where somebody's beaten to death with a chocolate bar!

Did you enjoy working with the guest cast, which includes the likes of Sue Johnston, Doon Mackichan and James Fleet?

Johnny: You fawn over them, Sian!

Sian: Yes, I get starstruck. Sue's amazing, I'm a massive fan of Doon and we've got the lovely Sheila Reid back, who's hilarious. I was gutted that we didn't meet Jane McDonald [when she filmed an ad for the fake perfume], though. You just can't have a cruise ship without Jane McDonald! But there were no egos from anyone. They have to do ridiculous things but everyone came in with the right attitude of having fun and not taking things too seriously.

Were you filming on a proper ship? Has it tempted you to go on a cruise in real life?

Sian: We were mainly in a studio but we also filmed on an oil-rig ship and spent a day on a posh super-yacht, which was super! I don't think a cruise would appeal to me.

I'd do it if Gold wanted us to do a spin-off! It could be just us two cruising round the Greek islands and Johnny walking on deck with a towel slung over his shoulder.

Johnny: Yes, there has to be a reality show spin-off in this. We have also had a few private discussions about bringing back [cult American mystery drama] Hart to Hart with us two – but in Preston!

Would you like to do more work together in the future, then?

Johnny: Yes. What is so lovely is that Sian's very creative and we're collaborating and knocking ideas about to do something else. Sian: We speak all the time. I've got things I'm doing with Peter Kay [who Sian co-wrote and co-starred with on BBC1's hit comedy Car Share], but I want to work on this every year. It's a joy.

Rana finishes with Kate when her girlfriend gets frisky with Adam

Well, that engagement didn't last long, did it? Just a month after Kate and Rana proposed to one another in the Rovers, their romance comes to a screeching halt, all thanks to Kate's baby obsession.

Trouble's been afoot ever since Kate mentioned the word 'mother' during their engagement drinks. Suddenly, all she could think about was getting up the duff. She's had tunnel vision and failed to notice Rana's numerous looks of horror, but when the couple have a row at the start of the week, Rana makes her feelings clear – she doesn't want a baby!

'Kate feels a bit of a fool – if she hasn't picked up on those signals from the closest person to her, then what does that say about their relationship?' says Faye Brookes, who plays her. 'She's also hurt that Rana hasn't said anything sooner.'

A chat about the way forward would be a wise course of action. But when Kate calls round to see Adam, to explain that her and Robert's deal to have a child together has been scrapped, she gets a better idea. As Adam opens a bottle of whisky, Kate wonders if he could be her baby-daddy instead. Thank heavens she didn't bump into Roy or Brian first.

'She is drunk and she starts flirting with him,' adds Faye. 'He kisses her, and this idea enters her head that this may be the way for her to get a child.'

The pair end up stopping before they go all the way, but Imran catches sight of them getting frisky. He tells Alya, who reports back to Rana, who then confronts Kate and dumps her.

Are 'Kana' over for good?

Flirty: Kate gets amorous with Adam

Livid: Jenny thinks Johnny's doing the dirty

Jenny sees red

Liz gets a call from the police this week, who want to talk to her about Jim and Hannah. She begs Johnny to give her a lift to the station and he reluctantly agrees – big mistake!

Jenny's phone app tells her that the pair are 'together' and she furiously confronts her husband, lying that she saw him and the barmaid drive off together. When her app later confirms another meeting, an enraged Jenny comes up with a plan to get revenge on her 'love rival', which involves logging on to an escort website...

Meanwhile, as the landlady continues to drink, she accidentally wallops herself in the face with a cupboard door. A concerned Gemma is suspicious of her bruises and she later sees Jenny stumble down the stairs during a row with Johnny.

Will Gemma get the wrong idea?

Getting closer...

Christmas comes early for Gina Seddon this week as she gets what she really, really wants – the affections of dim Tim. But as she and her brother-in-law share a kiss, will her conscience kick in, or will she take advantage of her sister Sal's incarceration?

Gina's been smitten with Tim for months. In the run-up to Sally's trial, she loved holding the fort at No.4, doing Tim's washing and making his butties. She was crushed when Tim made it clear that his missus was the only woman for him – but in the wake of Sally's conviction, things have changed. Tim believes she really did sleep with Duncan, and she's not due out of prison for four years, so there's an opportunity for Gina to fill her shoes. 'Gina believes, a little bit, that Sally doesn't deserve Tim,' says

She needs some love.' As Gina remains at No.4, Sophie's rattled by the pair's cosy set-up. But she has other things to worry about, as solicitor Paula slaps her with a huge legal bill. She suggests to Tim that he sell his half of Street Cars to cover it, and is staggered when he puts the house on the market instead. Gina's made up when Tim asks her to join him and Faye in their new pad, and when Sally phones, the machinist meddles to keep the pair apart. When Tim then lets loose at the Street Cars Christmas bash, Gina's intrigued to hear him drunkenly declare that since his wife did the dirty on him, it's about time he did the same. As Gina helps bloated Tim get safely home, he thanks her for being there, and lunges at her. Is a festive frolic on the cards?

Broken bond: Dan can't believe what Daz has done

Shame on you!

Dan is livid when Daz lets Amelia take the rap for the hit and run...

If Dan Spencer was ever in any doubt that his brother Daz was a waste of space, then he gets conclusive proof this week. The former soldier sinks to a new low and lets young Amelia take the rap for the recent hit-and-run.

Daz is as guilty as sin for the crime, but lacking a backbone (as well as a decent haircut), he's sat back and said nothing as the police have focused their attentions on Amelia and fellow teenagers Leanna and Noah, who went joyriding in his car on the night in question.

“Dan has given Daz so many chances, but this is the lowest of the low”

As events kick off this week, Amelia remains in turmoil while the police keep her in their sights, and things get worse when Nicola serves the family with an eviction notice.

‘Amelia thinks her behaviour is reflecting on the family as a whole,’ reveals Liam Fox, who plays Dan, ‘and that Graham wants to get rid of the Spencers because of her.’

Daz feels guilty when Dan says the family will need to leave the village – but not guilty enough to speak up. And things get messier for Amelia when PC Swirling turns up and reveals that the cops believe she knows more about the incident than she's letting on.

Bad news: The police think Amelia is holding back

As the investigation gathers apace, Leanna urges Amelia to take the blame, and when Daz overhears, he finally crumbles and tells her that he was responsible. The schoolgirl is stunned, but insists on leaving things as they are and lying that she did it – Daz is her biological father, and she doesn't want him to go to prison.

Daz, being Daz, agrees to go along with the plan, believing that Amelia's too young to be arrested. But as Amelia heads to the nick to hand herself in, he realises she can be arrested after all. He hotfoots it to the station and, seeing Dan, admits to his brother that he's the guilty party.

Dan is sickened. ‘He has given Daz so many chances,’ adds Liam, ‘but this is the lowest of the low.’

As PC Swirling appears, will Daz come clean? And even if he does, is the brothers' bond now broken for good?

Out for revenge: Sarah makes plans with Faith

Ten months after Debbie paid drug dealer Simon to 'mess up' Joe – an attack which, of course, went horribly wrong and led to poor Ross being scarred with acid – it's time for the single mum to face the consequences. Off she heads to court, knowing that she may not return home for a very long time.

'The family encourage Debbie to stay positive,' says Charley Webb, who plays her. 'Faith, in particular, is trying to put a positive spin on things, and she insists that Debbie will be returning home later.'

'But Debbie knows, underneath the bravado, that they are anxious, too. Cain is especially worried; I think he feels helpless.'

'When the time comes for Debbie to leave, she is really close to tears as she hugs Sarah goodbye. She understands the enormity of it.'

Devastated: Mandy and Darren get bad news at the scan

And, as Ollie starts to feel like a burden, can Mandy and Darren give him the reassurance he needs?

Also, Jack gives Breda an early Christmas present – a pup that she names Bronzer. The smitten ex-cop has no idea of the nanny's sinister side, which is explored in a special hour-long episode on Friday, when we go back to 1986 and see the start of Breda's murderous ways.

Breda has so far bumped off Carl, Glenn and Russ, but as the police reveal they have an announcement to make about Russ's killer, is her killing spree about to be exposed?

Olivia Bromley, who plays Dawn, is delighted that her character's backstory is being explored. 'When Dawn initially came in, to support Ross's acid-attack story, she clearly had problems,' says Olivia. 'There were hints of abuse, drug addiction and violence. But it was also clear that her heart was in the right place. So it's important to see why she is where she is, rather than just judging her.'

Mick on a MISSION

The Vic landlord returns to the Square – and he wants revenge...

After three months languishing at Her Majesty's Pleasure, Mick Carter is finally back home where he belongs. But he's in no mood for a Cockney knees-up around the old Joanna.

The Vic landlord has been to 'ell and back; wrongly locked up for shooting Stuart, and forced to live alongside the kind of crims that make Phil Mitchell look like a Care Bear. Worst of all, he spent much of his time behind bars believing his beloved Linda had left him.

We're not at liberty to reveal the details behind Mick's release – but suffice to say the truth is finally out about what really happened on the night Stuart was shot. Did the barmpot fall for Linda's plan, and confess that he put a bullet in himself?

As Mick is in turmoil, haunted by what his former pal put him through, Linda tries to focus on the positives.

'Mick's home, and that's all she wants,' says Kellie Bright, who plays her. 'Her take on things is "He's here, so let's draw a line under everything that has happened and just move on."'

But surely that's not going to be as easy as she hopes. Mick won't be impressed if he learns about the desperate lengths his missus went to in a bid to secure his freedom – like moving his archenemy into The Vic.

As Mick tries to settle back into normality, it's obvious that he's feeling anything but normal. And, as the week progresses, he struggles to readjust.

Before long, it becomes clear that he has only one thing on his mind – and it isn't Christmas. He wants revenge on Stuart for setting him up.

'It's safe to say that things aren't done with Stuart,' adds Kellie. 'Once Mick is out of prison, there's going to be a fallout from what happened.

'Mick isn't being upfront about anything.' If Linda knew that he was after revenge, her concern would be that he will end up back in prison. It wouldn't be the fear of what he could potentially do to Stuart; it would be about where it's going to land Mick.'

But with Mick a man on a mission, is Linda's difficult year about to go from bad to worse?

Fearful: Linda's worried for Mick

Elsewhere, Leo's criminal past catches up with him, and a tragic death rocks Ramsay Street.

PREMIERE COMEDY DRAMA

You won't know whether to laugh or cry when watching this dazzling dark comedy about the guys who made a killing from the global financial crash of 2008. It shows how a 'bunch of weirdos and outsiders', including Christian Bale's eccentric, heavy-metal-loving genius, Steve Carell's furiously indignant fund manager and Ryan Gosling's reptilian Wall Street trader, spotted what no one else did: reckless mortgage lending by greedy banks meant that the US housing market – and with it the whole world economy – was on the verge of collapse. The new team comprises Wiig's tightly buttoned-up physicist, her formerly estranged friend McCarthy, geeky tech genius Kate McKinnon and subway worker Leslie Jones, plus their beefy-but-dim secretary Chris Hemsworth (who's hilarious). As before, the story finds paranormal activity threatening to overwhelm New York. Sure enough, the band are soon up to their necks in ectoplasmic slime. The movie is far from perfect, yet for the most part, this really does work. Channel 5 11.00am - 12.45pm ★★

PREMIERE ROMANCE► Jill Wagner plays the titular character in this routine TV movie, a single mother whose young son is being tutored by the equally single – and dashing – Luke Macfarlane. Surely nothing will happen between Jill and Luke... Dir: Michael Robison 2017, PG, 105min

Nativity 3: Dude, Where's My Donkey?!

Channel 5 12.45pm - 2.55pm ★

COMEDY► Writer-director Debbie Isitt's third seasonal frolic is a weak, unfunny movie. Here, Martin Clunes' teacher loses his memory after being kicked in the head by a donkey. Dir: Debbie Isitt 2014, U, 1300min

The Ipcress File

BBC2 2.20pm - 4.05pm ★★★★★

THRILLER► The first of five films featuring Michael Caine as author Len Deighton's racketeering army sergeant-turned-secret agent Harry Palmer bristles with wit and tension.

Dir: Sidney J Furie 1965, PG, 105min

Miracle on 34th Street

C4 3.10pm - 5.00pm ★★★★★

FANTASY► Edmund Gwenn won an Oscar as a department store Santa who claims to be the real Father Christmas. Natalie Wood, Maureen O'Hara and Thelma Ritter help him make this charming comedy glow. Dir: George Seaton 1947, U, 110min

Swallows and Amazons

BBC2 5.00pm - 6.30pm (N Ireland 4.00pm - 5.30pm) ★★★★★

FAMILY► Arthur Ransome's classic pre-war tale still evokes a golden age of childhood. Set in the Lake District in 1935, the heart of this reassuringly old-fashioned adaptation remains the friendly rivalry between two sets of kids. Dir: Philippa Lowthorpe 2016, PG, 90min

SEX □□□ VIOLENCE □□□ LANGUAGE □□□

2012

Channel 5 6.30pm - 9.25pm ★★★★★

DISASTER MOVIE► The end of the world is nigh. Separated couple John Cusack and Amanda Peet are thrust back together when Earth's core heats up, causing havoc of apocalyptic proportions across the globe... Silly, but entertaining nonsense. Dir: Roland Emmerich 2009, 12, 175min

Star Wars: Episode V – The Empire Strikes Back

ITV 6.40pm - 9.00pm ★★★★★

SCI-FI ADVENTURE► Still arguably the finest film in the entire Stars Wars saga, this sees Han Solo (Harrison Ford) and Princess Leia (Carrie Fisher) get romantic, while Mark Hamill's Luke Skywalker gets to grips with the Force. It's brilliant, thrilling stuff. Dir: Irvin Kershner 1980, U, 140min

● See Our Picks of the Week, left

Jaws 3

ITV 11.35pm - 1.15am ★★

THRILLER► The story is – so the credits tell us – suggested by the novel Jaws, by Peter Benchley. But that's about as far as the similarity between this disappointing shark shocker and the two previous films goes. Dennis Quaid and Simon MacCorkindale are on the menu this time. Dir: Joe Alves 1983, 12, 100min

SEX □□□ VIOLENCE ■□□ LANGUAGE □□□

Alan Partridge: Alpha Papa

BBC2 11.45pm - 1.15am ★★★★★

COMEDY► Steve Coogan's cringe-inducing comic creation Alan Partridge makes his movie debut and he's as hopeless, hapless and tragically naff as ever. Here, he muffs magnificently his chance to be a hero when the staff of a radio station are taken hostage... Hilarious stuff.

Dir: Declan Lowney 2013, 15, 90min

SEX □□□ VIOLENCE ■□□ LANGUAGE ■■□

Ender's Game

C4 11.45pm - 1.50am ★★★★★

SCI-FI► Asa Butterfield plays a 12-year-old genius – but does he have what it takes to save Earth from insectoid aliens? It's intriguing and chilling, though a little dull watching Butterfield hone his battle skills. Still, Harrison Ford and Ben Kingsley are diversions... Dir: Gavin Hood 2013, 12, 125min

The Magic Box

BBC2 6.30am - 8.15am ★★★★★

SEX □□□ VIOLENCE □□□ LANGUAGE □□□

The Borrowers

C4 1.55pm - 3.40pm ★★★★★

Jingle All the Way

C4 3.40pm - 5.20pm ★
COMEDY ▶ Stressed-out businessman Arnold Schwarzenegger embarks on a last-minute search for a 'Turboman' toy for his son for Christmas. Unconvincing mayhem is the result in this dreadful high-decibel comedy of violence. Bah, humbug! Dir: Brian Levant 1996, PG, 100min

The Day After Tomorrow

C4 5.45pm - 8.00pm ★★

Armageddon

Channel 5 9.00pm - 11.55pm ★★
SCI-FI ACTION ▶ A huge comet heads for Earth, so Bruce Willis and his dirty dozen drillers (including Ben Affleck) try to sink a nuclear weapon into it. Despite some great action and special effects, this is brainless and far too long blockbuster. Dir: Michael Bay 1998, 12, 175min
SEX □□□ VIOLENCE □□□ LANGUAGE ■□□

George Best: All By Himself

BBC2 11.20pm - 12.50am ★★
DOCUMENTARY ▶ Five decades on from his heyday, George Best remains a sporting legend,

Poseidon

Channel 5 11.55pm - 1.25am ★★
DISASTER MOVIE ▶ Kurt Russell and Josh Lucas lead a band of survivors up through an overturned ocean liner to freedom in this shipshape remake of 1972's The Poseidon Adventure. Heart-pounding tension drives the plot and, although the film could do with a bit of humour, you can't complain about the lavish production and life-or-death action. Dir: Wolfgang Petersen 2006, 12, 90min
SEX □□□ VIOLENCE ■□□ LANGUAGE ■□□

Happy Christmas

C4 12midnight - 1.25am ★★
COMEDY ▶ Anna Kendrick stars as a flaky, hard-drinking twenty-something who proves a less than ideal house-guest after she moves in at Christmas time with her brother (played by writer/director Joe Swanberg), his wife (Melanie Lynskey) and their two-year-old toddler. It's amusing, with sharply observed moments, even if it's a fairly loose affair. Dir: Joe Swanberg 2014, 15, 85min

How will it all end for Terry and Gemma?!

Death on the Tyne

● COMEDY / 9pm / Christmas Gold

NEW Sian Gibson and Johnny Vegas channel Miss Marple and Poirot once more as they make a welcome return as tour guide Gemma and coach driver Terry in this hilarious whodunit. They're escorting a trio of pensioners (Sue Johnston, Georgie Glen and a returning Sheila Reid, all having an absolute ball!) on a doom-laden trip from Newcastle to Amsterdam. As tensions rise among both holidaymakers and crew – on a ship helmed by ageing lothario Captain Jack (James Fleet) – a killer strikes... disguised as the ship's mascot, Dippy the Dolphin! Though somewhat preoccupied with cracking the case, can Terry find a moment to pop the question to Gemma? ★★★★★ CC

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 11.30am / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE Are Man City going to soar away with the title once again? Liverpool and Chelsea may have some say, but City look fairly unstoppable. Today sees them playing host to Everton (k-o 12.30pm), a team that held Chelsea to a draw last month. If Everton were able to neutralise the likes of Eden Hazard, Willian and Jorginho, what will City's David Silva have to do to break down the Toffees' wall? Or will this be another wipeout on the way to City's coronation? ★★★★★ NP

The Big Short

● FILM / 9pm / BBC2

PREMIERE A cutting satire about the men who foresaw the 2008 financial crash – and cashed in. With a starry cast including Ryan Gosling and Christian Bale, it follows renegade Wall Street traders as they see the mess that reckless lending is about to bring about and bet against it. Whether we should be rooting for these real-life characters is one thing, but it makes for compelling viewing. ★★★★★ NP

Happy Hour with Olly Murs

● ENTERTAINMENT / 9pm / ITV

NEW Olly Murs has been a popular guy ever since coming runner-up on The X Factor in 2009. To celebrate almost 10 years at the top, the pop star and Voice UK coach takes over a pub in his Essex hometown for a night of fun in front of friends, family, fans and famous faces. The Chase and Doctor Who star Bradley

Walsh is the pub landlord, Emma Willis is karaoke queen – and Sir Tom Jones gets involved in a game of darts! Of course, Olly will be singing some new songs – and a few of his biggest hits, too. So crack open a cold one and settle down for an hour of top-notch entertainment! ★★★★★ VW

Drum roll... it's the showstopping finale of Strictly 2018!

● ENTERTAINMENT / 6.30pm / BBC1

LIVE

It's the final – and you know what that means... Show dances! As always our four finalists will repeat two dances from the series, one of their choice and one selected by the judges. Then they throw the rulebook away and give us a freestyle showstopper of a number, all lifts, tricks and razzmatazz. The winners will be decided by viewer votes (the judges' scores are just there for guidance) and while the couples anxiously await the results we'll be entertained with stunning pro dances, a dazzling performance from Michael Bublé and that nostalgic group routine featuring the class of 2018. And then it will all be over for another year... ★★★★★ EB

Ghostbusters

● FILM / 9pm / C4

PREMIERE Ignore the naysayers who griped about this all-female reboot of the 1984 classic – this is a humorous delight. Kristen Wiig, Melissa McCarthy, Kate McKinnon and Leslie Jones don their proton packs to give New York's ghouls what for, 'assisted' by their dumb-as-a-rock secretary Chris Hemsworth. It has its flaws and starts a little slow, but for the most part is a very funny movie with an all-guns-blazing finale. ★★★ NP

SUNDAY 16 December

Something marked Buddy out from the other elves

Elf

● FILM / 6pm / ITV

This hilariously funny comedy has become as much a part of Christmas as It's a Wonderful Life. It sees little baby Buddy mistakenly taken to the North Pole by Father Christmas, where he grows up with the elves without ever knowing he's human. When his elf dad (Bob Newhart) breaks the news to him about what he really is, Buddy (played as an adult by Will Ferrell) goes off in search of his real parents. He ends up in Manhattan, where he discovers that hard-nosed businessman James Caan is his daddy, a man none too pleased at having a 6ft 2in son who dresses as an elf and behaves like an eight-year-old. Ferrell's character could so easily be annoying, but in his skilled hands comedy stardust is created. ★★★★★ NP

Can Jordan Henderson steer Liverpool to a win?

LIVERPOOL V MANCHESTER UNITED

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 3.30pm / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE There was a time, not so long ago, when this was deemed the biggest club game in the world (k-o 4pm). A power shift now sees Liverpool as title challengers, with their opponents, Man United, simply clinging on to the hope of making the Top Four. On the other hand, Liverpool haven't beaten United in a Premier League game since March 2014. Can Jordan Henderson help steer his team to victory and prove that they are not simply pretenders to the throne? ★★★★★ NP

Lara Croft knows how to make an entrance

Tomb Raider

● FILM / Netflix

PREMIERE A world away from the teenage boy's fever dream of the buxom Angelina Jolie version, this new take on Lara Croft draws its inspiration directly from the videogame series that was rebooted in 2013. No longer a sexual object who dabbles in archaeology, this new, lithe Lara, convincingly played by Alicia Vikander, is a scrappy fighter determined to find out what happened to her adventurer father (Dominic West). Director Roar Uthaug throws in all manner of Easter eggs for fans of the games, but no knowledge of them is needed to enjoy this high-energy rumble in the jungle. ★★★ NP

David Dimbleby

Question Time 1997

● FACTUAL / 6pm / BBC Parliament

NEW Now David Dimbleby has stepped down as chair of Question Time, as a tribute the BBC has dusted down this archive outing, made when David was only three years into his 25-year stint. It's a lively one, too, with a feisty Tony Benn and Sir Edward Heath on the panel, and a fine showcase for Dimbleby's silky skills. ★★★ SM Don't they scrub up well?

The nation's sporting heroes gather for the annual gongs

● AWARDS / 7pm / BBC1

LIVE

The best British sports stars are celebrated at this year's SPOTY, live from the Birmingham NEC. This time the shortlist to vote on is only revealed on the night, but it's a good guess it could include the likes of England football captain Harry Kane, F1 driver Lewis Hamilton, swimmer Adam Peaty, sprinter Dina Asher-Smith and Olympic gold skeleton winner Lizzy Yarnold (her second Olympic title to boot!). The victorious Ryder Cup golfers are likely to be in with a shout for any team honours, and after England's World Cup semi-final, can anyone beat Gareth Southgate for Coach of the Year? Clare Balding, Gary Lineker and Gabby Logan oversee the proceedings. ★★★★★ NC

Sports Personality of the Year

Congratulations are in order!

The Apprentice

● REALITY / 9pm / BBC1

LAST ONE

After weeks of bickering, the final two candidates go all out to convince Lord Sugar that they should receive his £250,000 investment. Each has three days to launch their business by devising the brand, producing a digital screen for the London Underground, creating a TV advert and then pitching to Lord Sugar and industry experts. Who has done enough to hear those magic words, 'You're hired'? ★★★★★ CC

Look who's come down the chimney!

Best Christmas Ever

● ENTERTAINMENT / 9pm / ITV

NEW

Can you really have a Christmas without sprouts? Who did the best Christmas song – Mariah Carey or Slade? These and many other issues are up for debate when Alexander Armstrong is joined by a host of celebrities who'll put their own cases forward. When they're not arguing, they are sure to be singing along with the fabulous house band! ★★★★★ NH

All round to Mary's, then!

Mary Berry's Christmas Party

● COOKERY / 8.30pm (times vary) / BBC1

NEW If anyone knows how to host a Christmas party, it's culinary queen Mary Berry. Except, in this one-off special, it'll be four eager celebrities who'll be doing the catering for Mary's bash. The pressure is on as former Great British Bake Off judge Mary teaches BBC news reader Huw Edwards, athlete Dina Asher-Smith, Poldark star Eleanor Tomlinson and comedian Joe Lycett how to fine-tune their festive cookery skills. With Huw admitting that he 'never cooks' and sprinter Dina proving to be less than speedy in the kitchen, Mary certainly seems to have her work cut out. Can our four famous faces put together a delicious festive feast to remember? ★★★★★ VW

In this heartfelt documentary, Marc looks at Judy's other big films, such as Meet Me in St Louis and A Star Is Born, and touches upon her personal troubles, which led ultimately to her tragic death in 1969, aged only 47. ★★★★★ NC

Cherry learns how the Royal Mail produces

Christmas stamps, and also travels to Germany to join a team of 35 ornament decorators who apply glitter and paint to glass Santas. And historian Ruth Goodman reveals the history of having a turkey at Christmas – it dates back to the 16th Century, when the birds were first brought over from Mexico. ★★★★★ JE

Caroline Flack whizzes them all off to a country house for a Christmas get-together to find out... ★★★★★ MC

As they reveal how life has changed since their reunions, there are surprise presents – including new family members for some! Andrew Field meets his youngest brother, and ex-England rugby player Spencer Brown can't wait to meet his nephew... With all that plus a moving performance from The Missing People's Choir, if you're not left weeping into your mince pies, we'll eat our hats! ★★★★★ CC

Mary Berry's Christmas Party, BBC1 (Scot, Wed)

Mary wants us to have a stress-free Christmas...

'The best advice I can give to the cook on the day is not to panic – try to treat it as a bigger roast chicken lunch! I work out all my timings on a sheet of paper and then I don't worry. A good idea is to make mince pies ahead and put them in the freezer so you always have something to give your hungry guests.'

The Long Song

● DRAMA / 9pm / BBC1

NEW Set in the 1830s, during the chaotic final days of slavery in the British Empire, this three-part drama follows the inhabitants of a Jamaican sugar plantation as they adapt to a world that's crumbling around them. Seen through the eyes of July (Tamara Lawrance), a spirited lady's maid who finds herself crossing the divide in dramatic fashion, it's a story of love, loss and injustice that's subtly gripping. The support cast is also marvellous and Hayley Atwell shines as July's despicable mistress, while Sir Lenny Henry brings real pathos to the role of slave Godfrey. Riven with heart-wrenching trauma, but no little humour, the series continues tomorrow evening at 9pm. ★★★★★ SMA

Christine and Ray are still going strong

The Undateables

● REAL LIFE / 9pm / C4

NEW ...A Festive Proposal catches up with some familiar faces to find out if they are still very much in love. Daniel and Lily met at Christmas last year and have gone from strength to strength. Now Daniel is planning to propose to his 'lovely one' and has organised a surprise to set the scene before popping the question. Also still sweet on each other are Ray and Christine, who are looking forward to their second Christmas together, with Ray cooking up a storm in the kitchen... ★★★★★ JL

MasterChef: Professionals

● COOKERY / 8pm / BBC2

The knives are out as the remaining four chefs embark on their last week of culinary tasks ahead of Thursday's grand final. With the prize within touching distance, the finalists must impress eight of the world's gastronomic luminaries at The Chef's Table. Then, tomorrow, one chef will be sent home before the other three head to France to get inspired at top restaurant Pic. ★★★★★ MC

Sellers and Capucine

The Undiscovered Peter Sellers

● DOCUMENTARY / 10pm / Sky Arts

NEW You may remember the rather excellent Undiscovered Peter Cook from a couple of years ago. Now producer/narrator Victor Lewis-Smith is back with three more profiles (Kenneth Williams and Tony Hancock follow tomorrow and Thursday), starting with Peter Sellers, a comedian who could corner the market in troubled geniuses. Unlike a lot of documentaries promising 'unseen' footage but rehashing old stuff, this one really has scoured the archives for rarely seen footage, from Sellers' Army days, through his Goons and Pink Panther years and on to his untimely death, aged 54, in 1980. A genuine joy to watch. ★★★★★ SM

How to Spend It Well

● FACTUAL / 8pm / ITV

LAST ONE ...at Christmas.

Phillip Schofield and wife Steph test food and drink for the big day with the help of Emmerdale cast members, who sample luxury supermarket canapés. We bet they won't be a patch on anything Marlon could rustle up! Matt Tebbutt aims to find out if it's worth paying more for your turkey, and fizz is tested. ★★★★★ LP

Grizzly Bear Cubs and Me

Gordon Buchanan visits a Russian family
raising rescued bears

● NATURE / 9pm / BBC2

NEW There's nothing like a few cute orphaned animals to have us reaching for the tissues, and this new two-part series from renowned wildlife cameraman Gordon Buchanan has the 'ahh'-factor in spades. Gordon is spending eight months in the snowy Russian forests with the Pazhetnov family, who have devoted their lives to rescuing orphaned grizzly bears. Gordon must become a mother bear to six abandoned cubs and prepare them to return to the wild. But as he bottle feeds them, weans them and shows them how to climb, swim and forage for food, will he have taught them enough to survive the wilds of Russia? Concludes tomorrow, 9pm. ★★★★★ HD

Gogglesprogs

● ENTERTAINMENT / 8pm / C4

NEW The nation's youngest armchair critics return for a seasonal special, giving their candid opinions and hilarious views on the best bits of telly from 2018, including Prince Harry and Meghan Markle's wedding. Among those scrutinising shows from Christmas classics to wildlife documentaries are pals Stephanie and Christina, and eight-year-old Molly and her brother William, 11. ★★★★★ MC

Tommy's magic:
'Just like that!'

Tommy Cooper

● FACTUAL / 10pm / Channel 5

NEW ...In His Own Words. He's often referred to as a comic genius, and his fez has been described as an icon of the 20th Century, so what made Tommy Cooper Britain's highest-paid comedian and one of the most impersonated people in history? River and Petal get some tips
from Dad

Jamie's Quick and Easy Christmas

● COOKERY / 8pm / C4

NEW Rustling up a Christmas dinner that tastes delicious and looks fabulous can make even the most experienced home cook break out in a cold sweat. To try and ease our collective festive stress, Jamie Oliver is giving Christmas his five-ingredients quick-and-easy treatment. From a 'game-changer' stuffing that's cooked in a Bundt tin to a fabulous chocolate dessert, Jamie is cutting down on the shopping and ramping up the flavour. In this special filmed at the family home, Jamie's kids and wife Jools also get involved – especially two-year-old River, who 'helps' (in the way only toddlers can!) his dad make homemade dough balls with baked Camembert, shaped like a Christmas tree, of course! ★★★★★ JL

Carabao Cup

● FOOTBALL / 7pm / Sky Sports Football

LIVE Here's a cracker for the Carabao Cup – a competition that needs these big games if it's ever to come out from the FA Cup's shadow – as Arsenal, last season's losing finalists, host rivals Spurs (k-o 7.45pm) for this quarter-final. Unlike past games in this contest, the chances these teams will put out their B-squads are pretty low, as this represents an opportunity to grab some silverware – so expect to see the likes of Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang leading the Gunners' line. ★★★★★ NP

The sultans of silly

Vic & Bob's Big Night Out

● COMEDY / 10pm / BBC4

LAST ONE Time for one last helping of 'messaging about, telling jokes, having a daft laugh and that' as Vic Reeves and Bob Mortimer's latest brilliantly bonkers series comes to an end. They're signing off in style, as Bob showcases his new Diversity-style dance routine, and Bruno Mars and Ed Sheeran (well, sort of) pop in. Come back soon, lads! ★★★★★ IM

What a Summer
it was for England
footie fans...

World Cup: Summer of Love

● DOCUMENTARY / 9pm / ITV

NEW Against all expectations, the young England football squad, under the management of a waistcoated Gareth Southgate, shone at this year's World Cup in Russia. The tournament made global stars of the likes of Kieran Trippier and Jesse Lingard, and won striker Harry Kane the coveted golden boot for scoring the most goals. England even slayed a dragon while there, winning a penalty shootout against Colombia on the way to the semi-final, heartbreakingly losing to Croatia in extra time. Relive all the best moments of this glorious footballing Summer, but you'll still be left thinking 'if only'... ★★★★★ NC

Paul meets Zack

For the Love of Dogs

● FACTUAL / 8pm / ITV

LAST ONE For some dogs at Battersea, finding their forever home is not easy. Paul O'Grady meets four-year-old Staffie Zack, who struggles when he's left alone, and huge mastiff Maisie, who has lost her mojo after an operation. It's a good job the staff have plenty of tricks up their sleeves to turn unwanted pooches into family favourites. ★★★★★ JL

Ex-Gogglebox star Steph is here to help

Famous volunteers are ready to dish out advice in this special Christmas edition

● REAL LIFE / 10pm / C4

NEW Eight celebrities man the phones at the Age UK advice line to help answer the worries and dilemmas of those in need of a sympathetic listening ear. Last year's Strictly star Debbie McGee, Countdown host Nick Hewer, Gogglebox's Steph and Dom, former Corrie actress Amanda Barrie, Casualty's Sunetra Sarker, comedian James Acaster and Radio 1 DJ Gemma Cairney deal with everything from cookery questions to how best to cope with the festive season when you are on your own, and how to calm family frictions. A light-hearted and endearing insight into the reality of the party season for many of the older generation. ★★★★★ JL

Most Extraordinary Christmas Dinners

● FACTUAL / 9pm / C4

NEW For some, Christmas dinner is out of this world – take astronaut Anne McClain, who's having hers on the International Space Station. Anne is just one of those featured in this fun look at Christmas dinners in unusual places! We also meet jeweller Mark Hussey, who's designing a diamond-encrusted cracker. ★★★ JE

Mark Kermode's Secrets of Christmas Cinema

● FACTUAL / 9pm / BBC4

NEW Mark Kermode supplements his recent series on cinema genres with this seasonal special on what makes the perfect Christmas film. From the likes of It's a Wonderful Life to Love, Actually – pausing briefly to don a dirty vest for a bit of Die Hard – the festive film comes in many shapes and sizes. Variations include the Scrooge movie, the 'psycho Santa', the nativity, the Christmas countdown and films dealing with being far away from home, though most use the same tricks to get us to invest emotionally. Will Mark mention your fave? ★★★★★ SM

Lift off for Tom and Laz

The First

● DRAMA / 9pm / C4

LAST ONE Beautifully shot and fraught with tension, this cinematic season finale gives us the moment we've all been waiting for: lift off! Ten years after the last catastrophic mission, our five brave astronauts suit up and prepare for their big moment, while Laz (Natascha McElhone) and the whole world look on anxiously. Will all their hard work be rewarded with a safe start to the journey to Mars, or will NASA have another tragedy on its hands? ★★★★★ EB

A League of Their Own

● ENTERTAINMENT / 9pm / Sky One

NEW ...Christmas Party. James Corden, Freddie Flintoff, Jamie Redknapp and Romesh Ranganathan are celebrating the festive season with a game of cricket. As usual the ALOTO Christmas special will be a sensible affair – a dull and long game will be played without incident, jokes or singing. Of course not – the boys will be up to their usual antics in this charity match! The all-star team includes rugby's Ben Foden, McFly's Danny Jones, Olympian Amy Williams, presenter Helen Skelton and ex-jockey AP McCoy. The opposition includes cricketers Jimmy Anderson and Steve Harmison, and ex-England goalie David Seaman. ★★★★★ JL

Vincent's nervous

Fortitude

● DRAMA / 9pm / Sky Atlantic

These days, whenever someone new rolls into Fortitude, it's hard not to wonder how long it will be before they are shot, chucked through a window or sliced open. Wisely, this week's arrival heads straight to the store to tool up. Elsewhere, Natalie assures Vincent that her 'violent impulses' have subsided – but he's not sure about removing her restraints. We'd be cautious, too! ★★★★★ IM

Real wild ones: Bear and Gareth

Bear goes wild with England manager Gareth Southgate

● FACTUAL / 9pm / ITV

NEW The unlikely hero of the Summer, Gareth Southgate, has another surprise in store for us this Christmas – he has agreed to go on an adventure with Bear Grylls on Dartmoor! And there won't be any time to pet the ponies... Instead, Bear makes the popular football manager jump out of a helicopter, hang on a high wire over a rocky gorge and abseil off a cliff facing forwards. If that weren't bad enough, he also sits him down by the campfire and broaches the awkward subject of penalties. It's not all bad news though, as Bear gives Gareth a special camouflage waistcoat to add to his collection. This one-off special is a fascinating insight into a quiet superstar. ★★★★★ EB

Sun bears Kyra and Milli

Secret Life of the Zoo

● FACTUAL / 8pm / C4

NEW Even the animals at Chester Zoo don't get forgotten over the festive period as the keepers make sure they all get a present in this special edition. There's an early gift for the zoo with the birth of Kyra, the first surviving sun bear to be born in the UK – but the plucky cub makes the staff's lives difficult! Sadly, it's not such good news for golden-headed lion tamarin, Pru, who gives vets serious cause for concern... ★★★★★ LP

The 'Christmas' Misadventures

● TRAVELOGUE / 9pm / BBC2

NEW ...of Romesh Ranganathan. Romesh is really out of his comfort zone. He's in the Canadian Arctic, and though he's guided by Inuit athlete and movie star Johnny Issaluk, he's convinced he'll either freeze to death or be eaten by a bear. Romesh also has to put his vegan principles aside to learn Inuit hunting. ★★★★★ NC

ALSO ON...

● DRAMA / 2.15pm / BBC1

From 2016, a Christmas-flavoured episode about a local lord's baby being kidnapped. Enter the crime-solving Catholic priest played by Mark Williams.

Lenny Henry

The Long Song, BBC1

Back in 1988, Lenny told TV Times that his friends and family keep him grounded...

‘I’m still in touch with all my old mates, they were the only ones that believed in me at the start of my career. I hate it when people that give you the old malarky, when really they think your material is terrible. It must be awful to be so starry that nobody will tell you the truth!’

Friday Highlights

Game on:
Tye Sheridan
stars

Ready Player One

● FILM / 8pm / Sky Premiere

PREMIERE Steven Spielberg's wham-bam roller-coaster ride of a movie, based on Ernest Cline's best-selling novel, is an absolute blast. Set in the near future (dystopian, naturally) where everyone seeks refuge from the miserable real world in the Oasis, a virtual universe where you can be anyone and do anything, created by Mark Rylance's tech guru. Tye Sheridan is the teenager who is determined to find the three keys hidden by Rylance in the Oasis before he died, the owners of which will inherit the Oasis itself. Helped by Olivia Cooke, Sheridan's crazy race around a virtual world infused with pop culture is filled with fizzing, high-energy scenes seemingly fuelled by an adrenaline shot. ★★★★★ NP

Wolves forward
Raúl Jiménez

WOLVERHAMPTON WANDERERS V LIVERPOOL

Premier League

● FOOTBALL / 7pm / Sky Sports Premier League

LIVE It's not going to be easy, but there's a good chance Wolves could end up in the top half of the table by May. But then this isn't an ordinary Championship-promoted team, as Liverpool, their opponents tonight, will find out (k-o 8pm). Wolves have already drawn against Man City, Man United, Everton and Arsenal, proving they are not going to be the whipping boys for any 'big' team. With some top Portuguese players as well as striker Raúl Jiménez, this is not a team to be taken lightly. ★★★★★ NP

Christine McVie and Stevie Nicks perform

Fleetwood Mac

● FACTUAL / 8pm / BBC4

NEW ...A Musical History. Fleetwood Mac have endured break-ups and breakdowns to become one of the most successful bands of all time. BBC4 celebrates their 50-year career with this selection of live performances of some of their greatest hits, with celebrity fans, including Toyah Willcox and Edith Bowman, paying tribute. ★★★★★ LP

Jo Brand's Kitten Rescue features

Help the Animals at Christmas

● FACTUAL / 8pm / Channel 5

LIVE A host of stars have teamed up to bring us the first live telethon to raise money for needy animals across the UK. Gethin Jones, John Thomson, Gaby Roslin, Anton Du Beke and many others will host a three-hour festive charity fundraiser to raise money for five incredible animal charities, including the RSPCA and the Wildlife Aid Foundation. As well as VTs, celebrity chats and surprises, there will be special episodes of Cruising with Jane McDonald, Ben Fogle's New Lives in the Wild, The Yorkshire Vet, The Dog Rescuers with the cast of Neighbours and Jo Brand's Kitten Rescue. Make sure you dig deep. ★★★★★ NH

Host Stephen Mulhern

The Big Soap Quiz

● QUIZ SHOW / 9pm / ITV

NEW It's the annual Coronation Street v Emmerdale quiz. But who knows their drama best? Mark Charnock captains the Yorkshire team while Jack P Shepherd heads up the Weatherfield team, and Stephen Mulhern asks the questions. So have the goings-on in the Rovers been more memorable than the antics in The Woolpack? ★★★★★ LP

A dramatic reconstruction of Queen Victoria's big day

Historian Lucy Worsley recreates the wedding of the 19th Century

● DOCUMENTARY / 8.30pm / BBC2

NEW

This year has seen two royal weddings take place – and now historian Lucy Worsley is bringing us a third! In this documentary she re-stages the wedding of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, re-creating everything from the 200-strong guest list to the 300lb tiered cake and the white dress that went on to be a must-have for all brides, even today. To make life even harder for the team, they had to re-create each item in exactly the same way it would have been made in 1840, referring to newspapers and Queen Victoria's diaries for details. A fascinating look at the wedding that formed the template for all those to come. ★★★★★ NH

Lee Mack and Sally Bretton go off script

Not Going Out Live

● COMEDY / 9pm / BBC1

LIVE For the first time, Not Going Out goes out... live! Lee (Lee Mack) and Lucy (Sally Bretton) will be in their festively decorated home, nervously discussing the variety show they've been strongarmed into organising. But with an animal impersonator the only confirmed performer, quality acts are thin on the ground. Surely Toby (Hugh Dennis) and uptight wife Anna (Abigail Cruttenden) can't be roped in? ★★★★★ NC

Panto fun with the CBeebies team

Thumbelina

● CHILDREN'S / 5pm / CBeebies

NEW Bursting with colourful costumes, dazzling dances and super songs, this year's CBeebies Christmas Show is another triumph. We're in the magical world of Hans Christian Andersen's tiny girl (Nina and the Neurons star Katrina Bryan), who dreams of flying like a butterfly. Look out for CBeebies favourites Justin Fletcher, Andy Day and Ben Faulks (aka Mr Bloom). Jolly good fun! ★★★★★ SS

Your TV Times

Box of delights

Gogglebox on C4 remains a wonderfully entertaining round-up of the week's TV. I love the expressions on the Goggleboxers' faces when they see something not to their liking.

Pete Simon, Warwickshire

King Louis

The recent BBC2 series Louis Theroux's Altered States took on subjects lesser presenters would shy away from. In the episode about assisted dying in the US, Louis showed great empathy in trying to understand why people make the controversial decision to end their life.

Mary Lou Windsor, Notts

TV TURN OFF

Britain by Boat

This show on Channel 5 was so boring! I was really looking forward to seeing Michael Buerk and John Sergeant travelling around our great nation. But they were dull and I learnt precious little about the nation's maritime history.

N Brown, North Yorkshire

LETTER OF THE WEEK

Unmissable Mrs Wilson

Full of intrigue and betrayal, BBC1 drama Mrs Wilson [which concludes on Tuesday 11 December] is unmissable telly. Ruth Wilson is excellent as Alison, who discovers her late husband was a bigamist.

Kevin E Milner, Staffordshire

Intriguing tale:
Ruth Wilson
as Alison

Gripping drama

Channel 5's Blood was riveting. Adrian Dunbar was superb in the drama as Dr Jim Hogan, who was accused of murdering his wife by his own daughter Cat, played in award-worthy style by Carolina Main.

Iris Dutton, Shropshire

A cut above

I'm loving C4's A Very British Country House [which concludes on Sunday 16 December]. Cliveden House is amazing, with a wealth of history, and the staff are just so enthusiastic. A visit by the Duchess of Sussex made it even more interesting.

Mrs Dawn Bullock, Derbyshire

Brilliant Billy

The BBC2 documentary Driven: The Billy Monger Story totally captured my heart. What an articulate, inspirational and positive young man he is. Billy's accident certainly hasn't got in the way of his passion of racing and I'm sure he will continue to be driven by his personal goals and have a wonderfully fulfilling life.

Beverley Yorke, Cambridge

Star performer

Tim Roth is excellent as a troubled cop in C4's Tin Star. It's not always easy to work out what is going on, but this thriller set in the Canadian Rockies is exciting and funny.

Nancie Rutherford, Kent

Top star: Tim Roth
